

We are called to welcome strangers

Steadily ♩=76

Words: Sheena Evans
Music: Simon Hancock

Voice

1. We are called to wel - come stran - gers, of - fer
3. If we fail to chal - lenge false - hood, if we

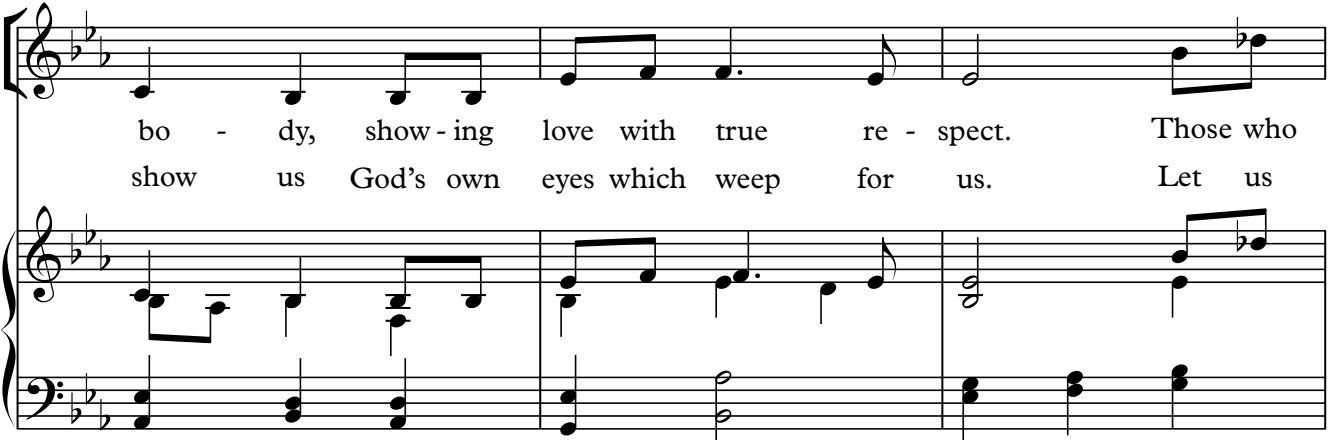

Piano

3

shel - ter, food and rest; heal the wounds of mind and bow to un - just laws, then the stran - ger's eyes will bo - dy, show - ing love with true re - spect. Those who show us God's own eyes which weep for us. Let us

6

words © Sheena Evans / Jubilate music © Simon Hancock / Jubilate administered by Jubilate Hymns Ltd copyrightmanager@jubilatehymns.co.uk

A Jubilate resource.
Please remember to include
this on your CCL/MRL return.

9

flee from war-torn home-lands, or fear death for their be-pray as Je-sus taught us, "Fa-ther, let your king-dom

12

liefs; those who run from flood or fa-mine, will we come", and with Christ-like lov-ing kind-ness we will

15

last time
FINE

meet them in their grief?
wel-come stran-gers home.

2. Here we see our bro-thers, sis - ters, each the i - mage of our God, if we turn our fa-ces from them we de - ny his liv - ing word. He would have us feed the 28

23

hun - gry, free the cap - tive, tend the sick, — care for all who now are

32 help-less, of-fer re-spite to the meek. 3. If we

Dal
al FINE